The Criminal Division maintains filings and records of dispositions (judicial decisions.) To get information about or copies of documents from a criminal case, you can make a request in person or in writing via the mail. The Court does accept checks marked "not to exceed xx dollars." If you make your request in writing, be sure to include:

- A letter including the defendants name, date of birth and case number (if known), as well as a list of the documents you want copied.
- Contact information of the party making the request for documents, including name, address and telephone number. The clerk will determine the number of copies being requested and contact you with the total cost.
- Upon receiving a check for the total cost and a self-addressed stamped envelope, the clerk will send the documents.
